This Sunday we return to Ordinary Time in our Liturgical Calendar. Today's reflection in this series by Rev. Paul Turner is about Hearing Scripture. It is something we have the opportunity to participate in at every liturgy where we are present. The Sacred Scripture readings we have been hearing are Year A – St. Matthew in the three-year cycle of Sunday readings.

“Imagine you're with a group of friends swapping stories about recent trips. But each of you brings a written copy for everyone else. When it's your turn, you don't tell the story while everyone listens. Instead, everybody pulls out your written account and reads along with you while you speak. Sound like fun? Sorry, that's not how we tell stories.

Listening is an art as rich as reading. We still do it in classrooms, seminars, phone conversations and the living room. Lively interaction between speaker and listener means the speaker proclaims ideas and the listener gives attention. In that low-tech communication, human beings connect.

The proclamation of Scripture recaptures the age-old art of speaking and listening. God's presence appears in the assembly as word. In actively listening to the word of God, as we naturally do in conversation, we open our hearts to wonder. Technology has made the mass production of written materials more available now than ever. With little effort, Scripture readings can be placed in the hands of every worshiper. Advocates of this practice say it permits the worshiper to use sight, not just hearing. However, it's like having everyone read your trip story while you tell it. It can let the air out. The event requires both the proclamation of the reader and the eagerness of listeners. Hearing the word together bonds and expresses our community. If everyone reads the text silently, we become individuals again, with noses in our laps and faces turned down from one another.

We'll hear the word of God with better attention if we prepare. Worshipers can read the texts prior to coming to Mass and pray over them throughout the week before. We may also discuss them with family and friends. Then our ears will be open to listen attentively to the Word of God. All eyes will be fixed on the one who reads. And our hearts will be joined as one body of believers. When the divine word resounds in our assembly --- heads up! And listen.”

I have completed my annual retreat and I am having some vacation days afterward. Each year I value greatly the silent retreat days of prayer and reflection. Discernment is integral in all our lives. For me, it is the most important week of my year!

I encourage you to consider going on one of the retreats offered for Men (February 23-25, 2018) or Women (September 22-24, 2017) at St. Francis Retreat Center in DeWitt. These are the designated weekends for our parish. It is a great gift you can give to yourself.

I am grateful to Fr. Carl Simon, one of our senior priests, who was available and presided at the weekend liturgies for our community. It is good that there are “retired” priests nearby to be present.

Caring for Creation – Ways to Help the Planet

Opt for A Shower – Switching your bath for a shower can make a huge difference. Baths use approximately double the amount of water a shower uses. This not only saves water, but it saves you money on heating the excess water too.

Online Giving

St. Mark offers online giving for parishioners who prefer to donate through automatic draft or credit card, a secure and personalized way to give to the parish. Find instructions on the St. Mark website or call the Parish Office for information and help.

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time
FEAR NOT

How do people find hope in the face of suffering and death? That is the question addressed by today's scriptures. We hear of the suffering of Jeremiah and the psalmist. We hear of the death that "reigned from Adam to Moses" (Romans 5:14). We hear of the fears of the Twelve as Jesus sends them out into the world to preach and heal.

Through all this tribulation, one message rings out loud and clear—"Do not be afraid!" The God who saved Jeremiah and the psalmist and Jesus is fully present to save us through the gracious gift of Jesus Christ. We have nothing and no one to fear.

FAITH FORMATION

Deacon Ron Kenney, Director of Faith Formation

Tel: 810-636-2216 E-mail: stmarkdff@hotmail.com

We are a people who long for hope and peace. Our lives are always in pursuit of what can bring us peacefulness. We look forward to special occasions; it might mean a day off. We anticipate our vacations. We look ahead and try to plan for that "time off" we think we need to bring a little peace and quiet to our hectic lives. That "time off" I'm afraid, is not going to take care of all the hectic turmoil forever. It all still awaits. That forever peace is found only in a faith in Christ.

We begin by surrendering ourselves to our God and placing our faith, our lives, our being in him. We do not know what that may bring, but genuine faith brings a feeling of peace and hope for what lies ahead. We are set free from the burdens of life as we look forward and realize that God is walking with us. Have you ever seen the attitude of a truly faith-filled person, nothing seems to shake them. They embrace life with God at their side and no matter what trial or tribulation they face, hope is present because God is present. They are able to live by the thought, "You can't always change your place in life, but you can change the way you look at it." God helps us to see things different, God helps us to face the tough times with a hope-filled heart and peace does come.

A "time off" is good, but when God's name is inscribed on our hearts and is what we are all about, "hectic" becomes just a moment of our day, not what consumes us.

Faithfulness to our God will set us free!
